This Signalling Establishment has been employed for the service of the flag-staff erected at Beypore, the terminus of the Madras or South-West Line of Railway, and a port now fast rising in importance. Beypore is in charge of the Master Attendant of the neighbouring port of Calicut, and the cost of the new establishment has, for the present, been declared chargeable to the Calicut Port Fund. 2. The Govt. of India having in their Proceedings in the Public Works Department, dated 1st August last, No. 328A—356S, directed that the cost of the Pier establishments should be met from Local Funds, this Government, have authorized the charge in question to be debited to the Madras Port Fund, the receipts from the Pier being credited to that Fund. The establishment exhibted in this statement, costing Rupees 1084-8-0, is provided for in this manner.
