No. 19. Read the following letter from AMMALUMMALL, Widow of the late APPAVOO RAYALLOO PILLAY, to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Royapooram, 1st May 1865.

I have the honor to forward annexed copies of correspondence regarding the deposit made in the Government Savings' Bank by my late husband Appavoo Rayalloo Pillay, a Supervisor, Revenue Settlement, of Trichinopoly, which I beg you will be pleased to lay before His Excellency the Governor in Council.

2. I am a poor Christian widow, and as the money now in the Bank is too little to enable me to undergo the expenses of obtaining the Letters of Administration, I request that His Excellency in Council will be pleased to sanction my drawing the money without the same.

From AMMALUMMALL, Widow of the late APPAVOO RAYALLOO PILLAY, to the Secretary and Treasurer, Bank of Madras, dated Royapooram, 28th April 1865.

My late husband named Appavoo Rayalloo Pillay, who was employed as a Supervisor, Revenue Settlement, at Trichinopoly, was in the habit of depositing his savings from time to time in the Bank, for the benefit of myself and children. He died all on a sudden on the 22nd May 1863, at which time his savings in the Bank amounted to Rupees 705-8-10, which, as his wife and heir, I request you will be pleased to order to be paid to me. I shall, if required, give personal securities to such an extent as you may require.
