Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department, 8th May 1865.

No. 21. Read the following letter from E. H. LUSHINGTON, Esq., Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras; dated Fort William, the 18th April 1865, No. 2008.

In reply to your letter, No. 90, dated 11th February 1865, I am directed to state that it was not intended, by the Orders of 15th November 1864, to give to C. Rangacharlu, Assistant to the Deputy Commissioner at Calicut, any advantage which he did not then enjoy over V. Rama Aiyangar, who was nominated to the corresponding office at Trichinopoly.

2. Both Officers were placed in the 4th Class of the Financial Department, the salaries in which class rise from Rupees 600 monthly, by an annual increase of Rupees 50, to a maximum of Rupees 800 monthly. It was understood, however, that C. Rangacharlu was receiving Rupees 700 at the time, and, on that account only, he was permitted to enter the Currency Department on that salary. The Civil Paymaster, Fort Saint George, has failed, however, to support the entry of that salary for C. Rangacharlu, in the Book of Establishments, dated 1st May 1864, by any other authority than the order of 8th May 1863, which raised Rangacharlu's salary to Rupees 600 monthly, from May 1863. Instructions will be issued, accordingly, for restricting Rangacharlu to Rupees 600 a month, in the Currency Department, for one year.

Ordered that a copy of this letter be sent to the Head Commissioner of the Department of Issue, Government Paper Currency, and to the Deputy Auditor and Accountant General, Madras.

Also, to the Civil Paymaster, Fort Saint George, with a request that he will explain the over-payment of Rupees 100 a month to C. Rangacharlu, as Special Assistant to the Inam Commission.

No. 22. ORDER THEREON, 8th May 1865, No. 232.

From E. H. LUSHINGTON, Esquire,

Secretary to the Government of India,

Financial Department;

To the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras.

Fort William, the 18 April 1865.

Financial Department.

Sir,

In reply to your letter, No. 90, dated 11th February 1865, I am directed to state that it was not intended, by the orders of 15th November 1864, to give to C. Rangacharlu, Assistant to the Deputy Commissioner at Calicut, any advantage which he did not then enjoy over V. Rama Aiyangar, who was nominated to the corresponding office at Trichinopoly.

2. Both Officers were placed in the 4th Class of the Financial Department, the salaries in which class rise from Rs. 600 monthly, by an annual increase of Rs. 50, to a maximum of Rs. 800 monthly. It was understood, however, that C. Rangacharlu was receiving Rs. 700 at the time, and on that account only, he was permitted to enter the Currency Department on that salary. The Civil Pay Master, Fort Saint George, has failed, however, to support the entry of that salary for C. Rangacharlu, in the Book of Establishments, dated 1st May 1864, by any other authority than the order of 8th May 1863, which raised Rangacharlu's salary to Rs. 600 monthly from May 1863. Instructions will be issued accordingly for restricting Rangacharlu to Rs. 600 a month, in the Currency Department, for one year.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Ed. H Lushington

Secretary to the Government of India.

Ordered, that a copy of this letter be sent to the Head Commissioner of the Department of Issue, Government Paper Currency, and to the Deputy Auditor and Accountant General, Madras.

Also, to the Civil Pay Master, Fort Saint George, with a request that he will explain the overpayment of Rs. 100 a month to C. Rangacharlu as Special Assistant to the Inam Commission.
