No. 28. Read the following Extract from the Proceedings of the Government of India, in the Financial Department, dated 26th April 1865, No. 2074:—

OFFICE MEMORANDUM.

From Colonel H. W. NORMAN, Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department, to the Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, dated 4th April 1865, No. 111.

With reference to Office Memorandum, No. 1314, dated 16th ultimo, the undersigned has the honor to acquaint the Secretary to Government, Financial Department, that, under existing regulations, Military Officers in Regimental or Staff employ can be allowed preparatory leave not exceeding six months, provided Government or the Commander-in-Chief think fit to grant it. Leave to this extent, however, is seldom applied for; such leave for two or three months being usually applied for and granted, according to the distance an officer may have to proceed to port of embarkation.

2. Officers at the Presidency are allowed a month's preparatory leave, or for a less period, bonâ fide for the purpose of preparing to embark for England.

3. Officers returning from furlough to Europe, or leave beyond Sea, are ordinarily allowed 15 days for preparation to rejoin, from date of arrival, this time being extended, if special circumstances require it.

4. Under paragraph 29 of the new furlough regulations, officers are allowed to reckon towards service the periods above stated.

ORDER—By the Government of India, Financial Department, dated 26th April 1865, No. 2074.

Ordered that, in continuation of this Department's communication, No. 1313, dated 16th March 1865, a copy of the above be sent to the Home and Foreign Departments, the Governments of Bengal, Madras, Bombay, the North-Western Provinces, the Punjab, and the Straits Settlements, the Accountant General to the Government of India, and the Deputy Auditor and Accountant General, Bengal.
