I have the honor, with reference to the Orders of Government of India, No. 1747, dated 6th August last, to forward the enclosed bill for the special sanction of Government, as far as Mr. Parker's claim for passage money for himself and one servant is concerned. The certificate required by the Notification No. 93, dated 20th May last, published in the Fort Saint George Gazette, page 1122, dated 2nd instant, appears to be unnecessary in this instance, as Mr. Parker states in the Bill, "actual passage money from Madras to Negapatam."
