No. 32. Read the following letter from Mr. A. BOWIE, Executor to the Estate of the late Pensioned Serjeant J. GOLDSMITH, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Madras, 16th October 1865.

I beg most respectfully to represent the following circumstances for your favorable consideration, and to solicit your kind condescension in the matter, for which I will feel extremely obliged.

2. From the enclosed Will of the late Pensioned Serjeant J. Goldsmith, you will observe that the late Mr. G. R. Fox and myself are appointed Executors. The late Mr. G. R. Fox, I beg to state, died on the 13th ultimo, and the settling of all business connected with the Estate, has devolved on me. I am happy to say the business is completed, with the exception of the subject at issue.

3. The late Pensioned Serjeant J. Goldsmith had lodged some money in the Bank of Madras (Government Savings' Bank), amounting to Rupees 300, which, with interest due thereon, now amounts to about Rupees 310. The Estate on the whole is very limited, as the late Pensioned Serjeant J. Goldsmith was a very poor man; and as it would be a hardship to the legatees to undergo any expense for a Probate, I sought to obtain from the Bank such money due to the Estate, without Probate, but from the enclosed letter you will observe that they required a special order from Government to do so.

4. On behalf of the poor relatives of the late Pensioned Serjeant J. Goldsmith, I beg earnestly for this indulgence from Government, and for which I will feel extremely thankful.

No. 33. ORDER THEREON, 19th October 1865, No. 493.

The Governor in Council resolves, as a special case, to authorise the Secretary and Treasurer of the Madras Bank to pay the sum of Rupees (310) three hundred and ten, or thereabouts, said to be in the Government Savings' Bank to the credit of the late James Goldsmith, to any person, or persons, who shall appear to him to be entitled to receive the same, or to administer the effects of the deceased, without the production of any Probate, Letters of Administration, or Certificate.
