Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department, 19th December 1865.

No. 26. Read the following letter from J. H. MASTER, Esq., Madras Civil Service, to the Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Edinburgh, 9th November 1865.

On the 14th April 1864, I availed myself of a furlough for two years granted to me by the Government of Madras. A few months ago, I applied to the Secretary of State for India, for an extension of six months, under the impression that my application would have been referred to your Government, for approval. I shortly afterwards received an answer granting the extension of leave, but without pay, and an intimation of this has, I believe, been forwarded to you.

2. It appears to me, on a more careful examination of the furlough rules, that I should have forwarded the application direct to Madras in the first instance.

3. I have, therefore, the honor now to request that, if no objection be found, the term of my furlough may be altered from two to three years, and in case of this my application being granted, I would address the Secretary of State, and say that I have no need of the extension which he has been good enough to grant me. An answer directed to the care of Mr. C. G. Master, Deputy Secretary, will reach me.

Referred to the Examiner of Claims for report.

Edinburgh. November 9th 1865

Sir

On the 14th April 1864, I availed myself of a furlough for two years granted to me by the Government of Madras.
A few months ago I applied to the Secretary of State for India for an extension of six months, under the impression that my application would have been referred to your Government for approval.

I shortly afterwards received an answer granting the extension of leave, but without pay, and an intimation of this has, I believe, been forwarded to you.
It appears to me on a more careful examination of the furlough rules that I should have forwarded the application direct to Madras in the first instance.
I have therefore the honour now to request that if no objection be found, the term of my furlough may be altered from two to three years, and in case of this my application being granted I would address the Secretary of State and say that I have no need of the extension which he has been good enough to grant me.
An answer directed to the care of Mr C G Master, Desp Secretary will reach me.

I have the honour to be

Sir

your most obedient servant
