Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department, 11th February 1865.

No. 29. To the Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, dated Fort Saint George, 11th February 1865, No. 90.

I am directed to submit, for the consideration of His Excellency the Governor General in Council, the following remarks with reference to the salaries which have been assigned to V. Rama Aiyangar and C. Rangacharlu, lately appointed Assistants in the Currency Department; a difference of Rupees 100 per mensem having been made in the salaries assigned to these officers.

2. I enclose statements of their services, from which it will be seen that Rama Aiyangar entered the public service five years before Rangacharlu; that he was promoted to the important office of Head Sheristadar in the District of Tanjore so far back as the 22nd March 1857, when Rangacharlu was only a Tahsildar, vacating for the Head Sheristadarship in question the office of Naib Sheristadar in the Nellore District, to which Rangacharlu was promoted shortly afterwards. In March 1859, both these officers were appointed Deputy Collectors; but Rama Aiyangar was placed in the 3rd Class on a salary of Rupees 350, and Rangacharlu in the 4th Class on a salary of Rupees 250. The promotion of Rama Aiyangar to a 1st Class Deputy Collectorate on the same salary as that which has now been assigned to him in the Currency Department, viz., Rupees 600, took place in April 1861; while Rangacharlu's salary was not raised to that amount until May 1863.

3. The Madras Government, under whom these officers have hitherto served, hold them both in high estimation; but they consider the claims of Rama Aiyangar decidedly superior to those of Rangacharlu; and, had their opinion been asked, they would have strongly objected to any arrangement which would have the effect or appearance of placing the former above the latter. The Governor in Council deems it his duty to submit these remarks for the consideration of the Government of India, and to recommend that the salary of Rama Aiyangar may be raised to the sum which has been assigned to Rangacharlu, from the date on which the two appointments took effect.

Chief Secretary.

To The Secretary to the Government of India
Financial Department.

Sir,

I am directed to submit, for the consideration of His Excellency the Governor General in Council, the following remarks with reference to the salaries which have been assigned to N. Ramaswami and C. Ranga Charlu, lately appointed Assistants in the Currency Department. a difference of Rs 100 per mensem having been made in the salaries assigned to these officers.
2. Enclose statements of their services,
from

from which it will be seen that Ram^{Aiyangar} entered the public service five years before Rangachari, that he was promoted to the important office of Head Seshitadar in the District of Tanjore so far back as the 22^d March 1857, when Rangachari
was only a Tahildar, vacating for the Head Seshitadarship in question the office of Sub Seshi-tadar ~~in~~ in the Mellore District, to which Rangachari was promoted shortly afterwards. In March 1859, both these officers were appointed Deputy Collectors, but Ra-^{Aiyangar} was placed in the 3^d class on a salary of Rs 350, and Rangachari in

in the 1st class on a salary of Rs 250. The promotion of Ram^{Aiyangar} to a 1st class Deputy ~~Collectorate on the same~~ salary as that which has now been assigned to him in the Currency Department, viz, Rs 600, took place in April 1861, while Rangachari's salary was not raised to that amount until May 1863.

3. The Madras for-
-ment, under whom these officers have hitherto served, hold them both in high estimation, but they consider the claims of Ram^{Aiyangar} decidedly superior to those of Ra-gachari, and, had their opinion been asked,
they

but of 21st Feb.

they would have strongly objected to any arrangement which would have the effect or appearance of placing the former before the latter. The Governor in Council deems it his duty to submit these remarks for the consideration of ^{the} Government of India, and to recommend that the salary of ^{the} ~~Rajawade~~ ^{high} ~~the~~ ^{may} may be raised to the sum which has been assigned to Rangachari, from the date on which the two appointments took effect.
