Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department,
11th April 1866.

No. 13. Read the following letter from A. J. STUART, Esq., Acting Senior Assistant Collector, Berhampore, to the Collector of Ganjam; dated Berhampore, 22nd March 1866.

I have the honor to request that you will be so good as to submit my application to the Board of Revenue for their permission to take two months' privilege leave from the date of the leaving of the Steamer next, after I shall have delivered over charge to my successor.

2. I passed in a second language at the examination held at Madras in the first week of March 1864, and was appointed shortly after to do duty for six months in the office of the Secretary to Government, Revenue Department. If therefore, as I trust, the Board will think but fair those six months are allowed to count as service, I shall be entitled to two months' privilege leave by the time a reply can be received to this application.

Forwarded to the Secretary to the Board of Revenue, for submission to the Board's favorable consideration.
