Not to be folded or roughly handled

No. 17. Read the following letter from V. RAMIENGAR, 1st Uncovenanted Assistant, Chief Secretary's Departments, Government Office, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Madras, 16th March 1866.

I have the honor to submit, for orders, the accompanying correspondence with the Examiner of Claims, who objects to pass my salary from the 2nd to the 8th ultimo, the interval between the date on which I relinquished my duties at Trichinopoly, and that on which I assumed charge of my present appointment.

2. It will be seen that the reason first assigned by the Examiner* of Claims is not tenable, inasmuch as the abolition of my last office took place subsequent to my resigning it, and that I did not leave it, because it had been, or was to be, abolished.

* Vide his Memorandum, 9th March 1866.

3. Neither does the 23rd paragraph of the Uncovenanted Service Rules, which Mr. Donald quotes in his second letter†, meet my case, as my present appointment is neither of equal, nor of higher value compared with that I last held.

† 14th March 1866.

4. On the principle, however, which seems to me to pervade all the rules applicable to the subject, viz., that an officer is not entitled to the salary of an office, until he has entered upon the duties thereof, I conceive myself entitled, not to the pay of my present, but of my last, appointment, for the period now in question, and I beg accordingly to submit the case for the necessary orders.

No. 97.

OFFICIAL MEMORANDUM.

As it is understood that the appointment of Assistant Deputy Commissioner, Paper Currency, has been abolished, the undersigned returns, for correction, the bill of V. Ramiengar, because, in these circumstances, the late Assistant Deputy Commissioner has no claim to the pay of that appointment from the date on which he delivered over charge of the office. The rate of salary to which he is entitled, during joining time, is that of the appointment he now holds.

FORT SAINT GEORGE,
9th March 1866.

(Signed) W. DONALD,
Examiner of Claims.

To V. Ramiengar, 1st Uncovenanted Assistant, Government Office, Public Department.

From V. RAMIENGAR, 1st Uncovenanted Assistant, Government Office, Chief Secretary's Departments, to the Examiner of Claims; dated Madras, 13th March 1866, No. 431.

In reply to your Official Memorandum of the 9th instant, I beg to explain that the Office of Assistant Deputy Commissioner, Paper Currency, has been abolished only since my leaving the office, and that I did not leave it because it had been, or was to be, abolished. I conceive myself, therefore, entitled to the salary of my last appointment up to the date of my assuming charge of my present one; and I presume you were also of the same opinion when you passed my pay as 1st Assistant here from the date I entered upon the duties.

2. If there is any rule under which my claim is inadmissible, I shall be obliged by your referring me to it.

No. 431.

OFFICIAL MEMORANDUM.

Your letter of yesterday's date.

Even admitting the statement by you, under paragraph 23 of the Revised Uncovenanted Service Rules, an Uncovenanted servant transferred from one appointment to another of equal or higher value can draw so much of the salary of his new office as may be equal to that of his former appointment. The salary of your former office was Rupees 650, and that of your new is Rupees 500. As the salary of your new office will not cover the extra pay claimed by you during your transit, the undersigned cannot pass the same, without the special orders of the Government of India. Further correspondence must be conducted through the Chief Secretary to Government.

FORT SAINT GEORGE, (Signed) W. DONALD,

I do not think that the Rate of Pay is correct - I think it should be Rs 200 per Mensem, according to the Scale laid down, it appears that the Appointment - Joint Treasurer - Cuddapah - The Appointment held by Mr Dutton was Currency Commissioner on Rs 300 per Mensem - I think the Claim from Mr Dutton should be Rejected - Ramiengar left it to enter upon another Appointment
