Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department,
15th January 1866.

No. 22. Read the following Extract from the Proceedings of the Government of India, in the Financial Department, dated 16th December 1865, No. 3362.

Read a letter from the Comptroller General of Accounts, No. 740, dated 17th November 1865, regarding the head of charge under which allowances to Medical Officers, for affording medical aid to Police, should be shown.

RESOLUTION.

The Governor General in Council observes that the whole of the emoluments in the Civil Department of Medical Officers in Civil employ should be charged to one head of service, as it would be inconvenient to distribute the charge for their salaries, or for any extra allowance for special medical duties, amongst the various establishments of which they may have medical charge.

2. The head of service to which the substantive salary, or that for the principal duties of the Medical Officer, is chargeable, is that to which the whole of his emoluments in the Civil Department must be debited.

3. Thus the pay of a Civil Surgeon or Civil Assistant Surgeon in medical charge of a Civil station will be debited to the grant for medical services, and any extra allowance which he may receive for Police, or for the executive charge of a Jail, will be debited to the same grant.

4. On the same principle, the consolidated salary of a Medical Officer, in executive charge of a Central Jail, will be charged to the grant for Law and Justice, and any extra allowance which may be payable to him for the additional Civil Medical charge of the station will also be debited to the same grant.

5. As under the orders now passed, the allowance to Medical Officers for affording medical aid to Police will continue to be charged to some other head than Police (generally to Medical Services) the grant for Police should be taken for the sanctioned scale of charge, less any allowance included in that sanction for medical aid to Police.

Ordered that a copy of this Resolution be sent to the Foreign and Home Departments, the several Local Governments and Administrations, the Comptroller General of Accounts, the several Accountants General, and to the Deputy Accountants General in independent charge.
