No. 32. Read the following letter from the Secretary to the Government of India, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Simla, 7th July 1866, No. 1325.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 227, dated the 12th June 1866, explaining that the escheated Government Securities, referred to in my letter of the 23rd April, have been adjusted by the Accountant General, Madras, virtually in the mode proposed in that letter. The explanation is satisfactory; but I am to remark that, according to the procedure of the Accountant General, Madras, the general revenues were credited in the first instance, whereas, according to the orders of this Department, the general revenues would have been credited in the final adjustment when the actual cash transactions occurred.

No. 33. Order thereon, 26th July 1866, No. 277.
