Bond Department.

With reference to the Orders of Government, No. 370, dated 11th instant, I have the honor to state that, in accordance with the practice recently introduced in Calcutta, Advices of Promisory Notes enfaced in this office for payment of interest in England will, in future, be sent direct to the Cashier of the Bank of England, and will not be forwarded, as heretofore, through the Government Office. Care will also be taken to advise enfacement of every Note by the out-going Mail immediately following enfacement, up to the date of the departure of the Steamer, so as to prevent, as far as possible, the presentation in England of the Notes before the receipt of the Advices.
