Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department, 19th December 1866.

No. 43. Read the following letter from Mrs. E. M. ARKLIE, widow of the late J. ARKLIE, of the Revenue Survey Department, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Madras, 11th December 1866.

I beg very respectfully to bring the following facts to your notice, in view to your being pleased to lay them before the Right Honorable the Governor in Council.

2. My husband, the late James Arklie, who was a Surveyor in the Revenue Survey Department, had an account with the Government Savings' Bank. On the date of his demise, which took place on the 29th November last, he had at credit in the Bank Rupees (30) thirty, or thereabouts. As he died intestate, leaving me in destitute circumstances, and without any provision for the future, I humbly beg that you will kindly obtain an order to the Secretary of the Government Savings' Bank, authorizing him to pay to me the amount standing at credit of my late husband, without the production of Letters of Administration, the expenses of which I am utterly unable to undergo.

3. For this act of kindness, I shall feel ever grateful.

No. 44. ORDER THEREON, 19th December 1866, No. 482.

His Excellency the Governor in Council resolves, as a special case, to authorize the Secretary and Treasurer of the Madras Bank to pay the sum of Rupees (30) thirty, or thereabouts, said to be in the Government Savings' Bank to the credit of the late James Arklie, to any person, or persons, who shall appear to him to be entitled to receive the same, or administer the effects of the deceased, without the production of any Probate, Letters of Administration, or Certificate.
