Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department,

21st February 1866.

No. 31. Read the following letter from PARVATHIUMMAL, Widow of the late T. PARTHASARATHY NAIDU, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Madras, 19th January 1866.

I, Parvathiummal, widow of the late T. Parthasarathy Naidu, most respectfully beg to represent that my late husband, who died intestate in December last, left a balance of Rupees 833-9-10* (exclusive of interest) in the Government Savings' Bank, and to request that orders may be issued to the Madras Bank to pay the same to me, with interest thereon up to date, without the Letters of Administration being produced, as I am the only representative of the deceased, and a poor widow dependent on this money for my future support.

* As per Pass Book, No. 967.

No. 32. ORDER THEREON, 21st February 1866, No. 81.

The Governor in Council resolves, as a special case, to authorize the Secretary and Treasurer of the Madras Bank, to pay the sum of Rupees (833-9-10) eight hundred and thirty-three, Annas nine, and Pice ten, or thereabouts, said to be in the Government Savings' Bank at the credit of the late T. Parthasarathy Naidu, to any person, or persons, who shall appear to him to be entitled to receive the same, or administer the effects of the deceased, without the production of any Probate, Letters of Administration, or Certificate.
