Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department,
28th January 1867.

No. 57. Read the following Proceedings of the Government of India, Financial Department; dated Fort William, 29th December 1866, No. 2610.

Leave and Allowances.

Read despatch from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for India, to His Excellency the Right Honorable the Governor General of India in Council; dated London, 16th November 1866, No. 24.

I have received and considered in Council your Financial letter, dated the 25th July last, No. 164, inquiring whether an Uncovenanted Servant may be allowed accumulated leave on private affairs for one year, after a service of twelve years, or an accumulated furlough of two years after a service of eighteen years.

2. I concur in the opinion of your Government that the present rule, under which an Officer may be granted leave on private affairs for six months, with half pay at intervals of six years, is sufficiently liberal, and I am unable to sanction the accumulation of such leave to twelve months; but I have no objection to an Officer being allowed the option of taking his two years' furlough in two periods as at present, or in one period after eighteen years' service.

Ordered that the foregoing despatch be communicated to the several Secretariats, to the various Local Governments and Administrations, the Mint Master, Calcutta, the Head Commissioner of Paper Currency, the Comptroller General of Accounts, and the Local Officers of Account in the Civil Department.

2. Ordered, also, that the Despatch be published in the Gazette of India, for general information.

(Signed) J. E. COOKE,
Asst. Secy. to the Govt. of India.

No. 58. ORDER THEREON, 28th January 1867, No. 43.

Ordered to be published in the Fort Saint George Gazette.
