Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department,
5th February 1867.

No. 7. Read the following letter from the Secretary to the Government of India, to the Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George ; dated Fort William, 22nd January 1867, No. 462.

I am directed by the Governor General in Council to forward to you two copies of the new Agreement with the Bank of Madras, to be duly signed by His Excellency the Governor—one copy to be kept by the Government of Madras, and the other by the Bank of Madras.

2. I am also requested to draw your attention to the fact that, as the draft of the Agreement was inadvertently mislaid in the office of the Government Solicitor, the present Agreement has been prepared to come into effect on the 1st of March 1867, the date of the expiration of the present Agreement, it not being worth while to make any change for the remaining brief period of its currency.

No. 8. ORDER THEREON, 5th February 1867, No. 50.

Resolved that, on the copies of the new Agreement received with the foregoing letter being signed by the Right Honorable the Governor, they be forwarded to the Directors of the Bank of Madras, with the request that one copy may be returned to Government, duly executed, for the purpose of being lodged in the Record Office.
