In accordance with the instructions of the Under Secretary of State for India, I have the honor to apply for the gratuity of £500 in terms of paragraph 7 of a "Despatch from the Right Honorable Sir C. Wood, Bart., Secretary of State for India, to His Excellency the Honorable the Governor in Council, Fort Saint George, dated India Office, London, 25th November 1862, No. 78."

MEDICAL BOARD,
India Office,
31*st January* 1867.

We certify, after having taken the usual obligation, to have carefully examined Mr. G. St. Vincent Smith, Madras Civil Service, and find that he suffered when a boy from a fracture of the skull, and ever since he has been subject to headaches on making any sustained mental effort. In India, at any season, headache resulted from over four hours mental application. In December 1864, he exposed himself to the sun, in a ride of two hours, and fell into an insensible state, and remained so for some hours. For more than six months after this his mind was disordered, so as to be utterly unfit for duty. Mr. Smith's mental health is improved, but he is slow and hesitating in his replies. Taking all the circumstances of this Officer's case into consideration, the Board is of opinion that he is not likely ever to render efficient service in India.
