Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department, 22nd May 1867.

Read the following :—

No. 57. Proceedings of the Government of India, Financial Department, dated Fort William, 17th April 1867, No. 2018.

Accounts.

Read—

An Extract from the Proceedings of the Government of Bombay, No. 203, dated 21st February 1867, representing the inconvenience to Government Officials in that Presidency from the substitution of Money Orders for Privilege Transfer Receipts.

Read also—

A letter, No. 261, dated 2nd March 1867, from the Government of Bombay, pointing out the serious objections that result from the restriction contained in the rules regarding the new Money Order system, by which Government officials, in common with others, can only remit a sum of Rupees 100 in one Order.

Read—

A report, No. 1355, dated 28th March 1867, from the Comptroller General of Accounts, proposing, with a view to obviate the inconvenience complained of, that Government officials who had been allowed Privilege Remittance Transfer Receipts may be permitted to have Money Orders to the full extent to which they were allowed the Receipts, but that no one Order shall exceed 100 Rupees, except in Bengal, where the maximum is Rupees 150.

Resolution.—The Governor General in Council, on a review of all the circumstances of the case, is pleased to sanction the extension of the amount of each Money Order to 150 Rupees throughout India, and hopes that this extended accommodation, together with the Currency Notes which will be issued and cashed freely by Officers in charge of Treasuries, will render unnecessary a recurrence to the practice of privilege remittances.

---

Ordered that a copy of the above be sent to the Government of Bombay and the Comptroller General of Accounts.

Also, that it be published in the Gazette of India, for general information.
