Read the following :—

Proceedings of the Government of India in the Financial Department.

No. 27. From the Secretary to the Government of India, to the Accountant General, Bengal ; dated Simla, 23rd May 1867, No. 197.

Pensions and Gratuities.

In reply to your letter dated 10th April 1867, No. 67, I am directed to state that when an Uncovenanted Servant pensioned on reduction of establishment, is subsequently re-employed on a permanent establishment, there can be no objection to his former service being allowed to count towards a higher pension, and that a refund of the pension drawn by him in the interval between the two periods of service is not necessary. This, of course, does not affect the present rule requiring the refund of gratuity in a similar case.

Ordered that the foregoing letter be communicated to—
The Military and Public Works Departments.
The various Local Governments and Administrations.
The Comptroller General of Accounts ; and
The Local Officers of Account in the Civil Department.
