Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department, 19*th July* 1867.

Read the following papers :—

No. 57. From H. E. JACOMB, Esq., Under Secretary to Government, to the Acting Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George ; dated Bombay Castle, 26th June 1867, No. 764.

I am directed to request that you will, with the permission of the Government of Madras, be so good as to state the practice at present followed with regard to the admission of the Shipping Master at Madras, and the members of his establishment, to the benefit of the Uncovenanted Pension and Absentee Rules.

Referred to the Superintendent of Marine for report.

FORT SAINT GEORGE,
5th July 1867.

(Signed) R. S. ELLIS,
Acting Chief Secretary.

No. 58. From the Superintendent of Marine, to the Acting Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George ; dated Madras, 9th July 1867, No. 2457.

I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of the letter from the Bombay Government of the 26th ultimo, No. 764, referred for report, inquiring as to the practice followed with regard to the admission of the Shipping Master at Madras and the members of his establishment to the benefit of the Uncovenanted Pension and Absentee Rules.

2. At Madras there is no separately paid Superintendent of Mercantile Marine. The Master Attendant performs the duties, but as the fees are insufficient to cover the expenses, he cannot be said to be paid out of them.

3. In the Proceedings of Government of the 9th December 1863, No. 312, passing orders regarding the amalgamation of the offices of the Superintendent of Marine and Master Attendant, the Shipping Mastership was evidently considered as attached to the Master Attendantship, the salary being a consolidated one.

4. Under these circumstances the Officer doing the duty of Shipping Master or Superintendent of Mercantile Marine at Madras, is considered entitled to the benefit of the Uncovenanted Service Rules.

No. 59. To the Secretary to the Government of Bombay, dated Fort Saint George, 19th July 1867, No. 330.

Adverting to Mr. Under Secretary Jacomb's letter of the 26th ultimo, No. 764, requesting to be informed of the practice at present followed with regard to the admission of the Shipping Master at Madras and the members of his establishment to the benefit of the Uncovenanted Service Pension and Absentee Rules, I am directed to forward the enclosed copy of a letter from the Superintendent of Marine, intimating that there is no separately paid Superintendent of Mercantile Marine, and that the Officer doing the duty of Shipping Master is considered entitled to the benefit of the Uncovenanted Service Rules. This Officer is at present the Master Attendant.

2. Under instructions from the Government of India it has been determined that upon the retirement of either the present Superintendent of Marine or Master Attendant, the former office shall be abolished, and that the duties shall be performed by a Master Attendant and his First Assistant, who will then be Shipping Master, and Examiner in Navigation.

3. I am to observe that in the Resolution of the Government of India, Financial Department, dated the 14th January 1865, No. 34, the confirmation of that Government was given to the arrangement approved of by the Bombay Government, "that members of the several Master "Attendants' Departments shall be entitled to pension under rules similar to those applied to the "Uncovenanted Service of Government, and that service in those Departments shall count "towards pension in case of change to any other Government office qualifying for pension."

4. The Officers and subordinates employed at present in the Master Attendant's Department at this Presidency are allowed the benefit of the Uncovenanted Civil Service Absentee Rules, and should any of the members be entitled to a pension they would be dealt with under the spirit of the Resolution quoted in the preceding paragraph.
