Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department, 5th November 1867.

Read the following papers :—

No. 18. From PANGAJAMMAL, widow of PARTHASARADY IYENGAR, late District Moonsiff of Purghy, Bellary District, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George ; dated Madras, 23rd October 1867.

In requesting your attention to the enclosed petition and endorsement thereon, I beg to point out that I mentioned in my former petition my limited means as my reason for soliciting the payment to me, without my taking Letters of Administration, of the small sum deposited by my deceased husband in the Savings' Bank.

2. The 1700 Rupees invested in that Bank constitutes almost all I have, and on it I have myself to live, and to bring up two female children. You have almost invariably, with a feeling heart, readily granted sanction for the payment to parties, circumstanced like myself, of small sums invested in the Savings' Bank, and I do not therefore understand the refusal of Government to grant a like indulgence in my favor. My husband was only Acting District Moonsiff at the time he died, and had acted but for a short time. He had previously held but small appointments, and I am, therefore, able to assure your Honor that he has not left me the means of undergoing the expense of taking out Letters of Administration.

3. Under these circumstances I respectfully and earnestly pray that you will be pleased, with reference to former precedents in like cases, to order the payment to me of the 1700 Rupees remaining at the credit of my deceased husband in the Madras Savings' Bank, without subjecting me to the necessity of obtaining Letters of Administration.

No. 19. From PANGAJAMMAL, widow of PARTHASARADY IYENGAR, late District Moonsiff of Purghy, Bellary District, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George ; dated Madras, 6th July 1867.

I am the widow of one Parthasarady Iyengar, who was originally employed in the Electric Telegraph Department, was afterwards an Inspector in the Mofussil Police, and latterly the District Moonsiff of Purghy in the Bellary District. He died on the—ultimo, leaving myself and two infants, both females, aged six and four years. When alive, my husband was in the habit of investing a portion of his pay in the Madras Savings' Bank, and the total sum there invested amounts to about 1700 Rupees. This is almost all the property my husband has left me and my two children. As I do not possess the means to obtain Letters of Administration, I humbly pray the Government will be pleased to order the amount in question in the Savings' Bank to be paid over to me as early as possible.

No. 1687.

The Government decline to comply with the request contained in this petition, no sufficient cause being shown why the petitioner should be exempted from taking out Letters of Administration in the usual manner.
