Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department,
8th November 1867.

Read the following :—

No. 27. Circular letter from the Comptroller General of Accounts, to all Accountants General ; dated Calcutta, 25th October 1867, No. 60.

Under orders of the Government of India in the Financial Department, dated 10th instant, I have the honor to request that in your Monthly General Abstracts of Receipts and Disbursements rendered to this office for 1867-68, as well as in the Abstracts for the last month of that year to be submitted to the Financial Department, you will be good enough to distinguish under the several heads of Service, except Education, Science and Art, the charges on account of Salaries from those for Establishments, instead of mixing them up, as at present, in one entry under each head of Service.

Salaries distinguished from Establishments in the Monthly Accounts.

2. You are requested to furnish a Memorandum, showing separately the charges on the above account, which have been combined in such of your Monthly Abstracts for 1867-68 as have already been rendered to this office, and to correct your office copies of those Returns accordingly.

No. 728.

Copy forwarded to the Secretary to the Government of Madras for information.
