To be met from Savings under Grant "17, Administration and Public Departments." The increase is a mere renewal of a moiety of the charge sanctioned by the Government of India, under date the 6th November 1857, but which has not been incurred for some time past.	2. In November 1857, the Government of India sanctioned the disbursement of the sum of Rupees 50 per mensem as extra remuneration to the Clerks engaged on special duty in the Confidential Department of the Chief Secretary's Office. The extra remuneration then sanctioned was subsequently withdrawn, owing to the decrease of work requiring the services of a Confidential Clerk. Of late, however, there has been a considerable amount of business of this nature, and this Government has accordingly assigned a moiety of the monthly sum above referred to to the Clerk who might be employed by the Chief Secretary in transcribing confidential papers. It is requested, therefore, that the extra allowance may be sanctioned as a permanent charge.

Prior to his appointment for the purpose of inquiring into and reporting on the ravages of the "Borer" insect in the Coffee plantations of Coorg, and Mysore, Assistant Surgeon Bidie was Acting as Secretary to the Medical Fund, and received for this service a monthly salary of 175 Rupees. As the incumbent who may officiate during Dr. Bidie's absence on special duty will draw the whole of that salary, this Government has subject to the orders of the Government of India, sanctioned the disbursement to Dr. Bidie, during such absence, of the sum of Rupees 175 per mensem, in addition to his other emoluments.
