The applicant M. Vencataroyalu Naidu, late 5th Class Inspector of Police in the Kurnool District, has served in the Kurnool Police for 6 years, 3 months, and 12 days, of which term 5 years, 7 months, and 10 days can count towards pension. Before entering the Police he had served in the Army, and was a Jemadar in his Regiment. He is now certified to be worn out and unfit for duty, and is recommended for gratuity. He quitted the service on the 1st September 1867, but no medical certificate was obtained from him until the 18th October following.
