Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department, 15th August 1868.

No. 35. Read the following letter from the Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, to the Accountant General, Punjab ; dated Simla, 23rd July 1868, No. 1104.

Pensions and Gratuities.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your Deputy's letter, No. 38, dated the 29th June 1868, applying for a copy of a Financial Resolution of November 1855, according to which a gratuity sanctioned for a Government servant who dies before drawing any portion of it, cannot be paid in full to his family whose title is restricted to that portion of a monthly instalment which accrued from the date of the discharge of the deceased to that of his death.

2. In reply, I am to state that it is not considered necessary to comply with the requisition, as henceforth gratuities should be disbursed in lump sums, instead of in monthly instalments as heretofore.

Ordered that copies of the foregoing be forwarded to the other Departments, the several Local Governments and Administrations, the Director General of the Post Office of India, the Mint Master, Calcutta, the Head Commissioner of Paper Currency, the Comptroller General of Accounts, the several Accountants General, and the Deputy Accountants General in independent charge.
