Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department, 25th August 1868.

No. 61. Read the following letter from the Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, to the Accountant General, Bengal ; dated Simla, 31st July 1868, No. 1290.

Leave and Allowances.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 534, dated 29th June 1868, inquiring whether an officer holding an officiating appointment, and taking leave under Section 18 of the new Furlough Rules for the Covenanted Civil Service, will, while absent, draw his acting allowance if another officer is appointed to act in his stead for the substantive incumbent.

2. In reply, I am to inform you that it was fully intended that the rule should be strictly carried out, and that acting allowances should continue to be drawn by an officer on privilege leave, even though another officer were appointed to act for him.

ORDERED that a copy of the above be sent to the Comptroller General of Accounts, and the other local Accountants General and Deputy Accountants General in independent charge.

Also to all the Local Governments and Administrations.

(Signed) G. H. M. BATTEN,
Under Secy. to the Govt. of India.

No. 62. ORDER THEREON, 25th August 1868, No. 395.

SIMLA, the [illegible] July 1868.

SIR,

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 534, dated 29th June 1868, enquiring whether an officer holding an officiating appointment, and taking leave under Section XVIII. of the new Furlough Rules for the Covenanted Civil Service, will, while absent, draw his acting allowance if another officer is appointed to act in his stead for the substantive incumbent.

2. In reply, I am to inform you that it was fully intended that the rule should be strictly carried out, and that acting allowances should continue to be drawn by an officer on privilege leave, even though another officer were appointed to act for him.

I have the honor to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient Servant,

E. H. LUSHINGTON,

Secy. to the Govt. of India.

ORDERED, that a copy of the above be sent to the Comptroller General of Accounts, and the other local Accountants General and Deputy Accountants General in independent charge.

Also to all the Local Governments and Administrations.
