The undermentioned correspondence regarding a proposal of the Government of Bengal that Officers under that Government should be exempted from the operation of the rule laid down in an Order of this Department, No. 5922, of the 1st December 1863, prohibiting the grant of any extra allowance to an officer placed in charge of the current duties of an office :—

Letter from the Officiating Secretary to the Government of Bengal, No. 310T, dated the 10th August 1867, and enclosure.

Ditto to ditto, No. 2553, dated the 13th September 1867.

Ditto from the Junior Secretary to the Government of Bengal, No. 3744, dated the 2nd October 1867.

Resolution.—As an exception to the rule of the 1st December 1863, mentioned above, the Governor General in Council is pleased to decide that when an Officer is placed in charge of the current duties of a judicial office, and the charge, in the opinion of the Local Government, entails a substantial increase of responsibility besides some additional work, he shall be permitted to draw one-half of the deputation allowance which he would have received had he been appointed to officiate in the office concerned.

Ordered that the foregoing Resolution be communicated to the Home Department; Governments of Bengal, Madras, Bombay, and the North-Western Provinces; and Accountants General in Bengal, Madras, Bombay, and the North-Western Provinces.
