No. 38. Proceedings of the Government of India, Financial Department; dated Simla, 14th October 1868, No. 3053.

Leave and Allowances.

READ—

A letter from the Deputy Accountant General, Central Provinces, No. 1870, dated the 28th August 1868, inquiring if the acting allowance of a Military Officer, officiating in a Civil appointment, is one of the "extra or special allowances" referred to in the following quotation from Section 5 of the Rules for the grant of leave of absence to Military Officers, published in the General Order of the Military Department, No. 613, dated the 19th June 1868:—"The term salary will signify the total amount drawn by an officer, whether as consolidated pay or staff allowance, in addition to pay, but will not include any extra or special allowances."

RESOLUTION.—The inquiry of the DeputyAccountant General, Central Provinces, is answered in the affirmative. All acting allowances will, therefore, be omitted in the calculation of the furlough allowances of a Military Officer.

ORDERED that the foregoing Resolution be published in the Gazette of India, and communicated to the Foreign, Home, and Public Works Departments; the Governments of Bengal, Madras, Bombay, the North-Western Provinces, and the Punjab; the Comptroller General of Accounts; the Director General of the Post Office of India; the Mint Master, Calcutta; the Head Commissioner of Paper Currency, Calcutta; the Accountants General in Bengal, Madras, Bombay, the North-Western Provinces, the Punjab, and British Burmah; and the Deputy Accountants General, Central Provinces, Hyderabad, and Mysore.

Sir,

I am directed to say that it has been brought to the notice of the Government of India that Officers on leave of absence, and on the Furlough List, frequently omit to inform the Military Authorities of their movements, and of the places where letters will reach them.

2. The Government of India considers it desirable that Officers should be required to keep the Military Authorities fully informed of their movements, and of the places where letters will reach them, and has accordingly directed that the following rules be observed by Officers on leave of absence, and on the Furlough List, in addition to any Rules which may be in force in the Presidency to which they belong.

(1) Officers on leave of absence, or on the Furlough List, shall, before leaving any place, inform the Military Authorities of the Station, and of the date of their intended departure.

(2) Officers on leave of absence, or on the Furlough List, shall, on arriving at any place, inform the Military Authorities of the Station, and of the date of their arrival.

(3) Officers on leave of absence, or on the Furlough List, shall, when they change their residence from one place to another, inform the Military Authorities of the Station, and of the date of their intended departure, and of the date of their arrival at the place to which they are going.

(4) Officers on leave of absence, or on the Furlough List, shall, when they change their residence from one place to another, inform the Military Authorities of the Station, and of the date of their intended departure, and of the date of their arrival at the place to which they are going.

(5) Officers on leave of absence, or on the Furlough List, shall, when they change their residence from one place to another, inform the Military Authorities of the Station, and of the date of their intended departure, and of the date of their arrival at the place to which they are going.

(6) Officers on leave of absence, or on the Furlough List, shall, when they change their residence from one place to another, inform the Military Authorities of the Station, and of the date of their intended departure, and of the date of their arrival at the place to which they are going.

(7) Officers on leave of absence, or on the Furlough List, shall, when they change their residence from one place to another, inform the Military Authorities of the Station, and of the date of their intended departure, and of the date of their arrival at the place to which they are going.

(8) Officers on leave of absence, or on the Furlough List, shall, when they change their residence from one place to another, inform the Military Authorities of the Station, and of the date of their intended departure, and of the date of their arrival at the place to which they are going.

(9) Officers on leave of absence, or on the Furlough List, shall, when they change their residence from one place to another, inform the Military Authorities of the Station, and of the date of their intended departure, and of the date of their arrival at the place to which they are going.

(10) Officers on leave of absence, or on the Furlough List, shall, when they change their residence from one place to another, inform the Military Authorities of the Station, and of the date of their intended departure, and of the date of their arrival at the place to which they are going.

(11) Officers on leave of absence, or on the Furlough List, shall, when they change their residence from one place to another, inform the Military Authorities of the Station, and of the date of their intended departure, and of the date of their arrival at the place to which they are going.

(12) Officers on leave of absence, or on the Furlough List, shall, when they change their residence from one place to another, inform the Military Authorities of the Station, and of the date of their intended departure, and of the date of their arrival at the place to which they are going.

(13) Officers on leave of absence, or on the Furlough List, shall, when they change their residence from one place to another, inform the Military Authorities of the Station, and of the date of their intended departure, and of the date of their arrival at the place to which they are going.

(14) Officers on leave of absence, or on the Furlough List, shall, when they change their residence from one place to another, inform the Military Authorities of the Station, and of the date of their intended departure, and of the date of their arrival at the place to which they are going.

(15) Officers on leave of absence, or on the Furlough List, shall, when they change their residence from one place to another, inform the Military Authorities of the Station, and of the date of their intended departure, and of the date of their arrival at the place to which they are going.

(16) Officers on leave of absence, or on the Furlough List, shall, when they change their residence from one place to another, inform the Military Authorities of the Station, and of the date of their intended departure, and of the date of their arrival at the place to which they are going.
