This Indenture made the twenty-eighth day of October One thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven between The Secretary of State in Council of the one part and the Madras Railway Company Incorporated by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the Session of the sixteenth year of the Reign of Her present Majesty entitled "An Act for incorporating the Madras Railway Company and for other purposes connected therewith" and which Act was afterwards amended by two Acts one passed in the seventeenth and the other in the eighteenth years of the Reign of Her present Majesty of the other part Whereas the said Madras Railway Company (hereinafter called the said Company) was incorporated by the said first mentioned Act of Parliament for the purpose of making and constructing working and maintaining such Railway or Railways in the East Indies as had been or might be agreed upon by the said Company and the East India Company and by the said Act the said Company were empowered from time to time to enter into and conclude with the East India Company on account of the Government of India such Contracts Agreements and Arrangements as the respective parties might think fit and agree upon for making any Railway or Railways in India including all or any of the provisions therein particularly mentioned And whereas by an Indenture bearing date the twenty-second day of December One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two and made between the East India Company of the one part and the said Company of the other part It was amongst other things agreed that the said Company should construct and open an Experimental Line of Railway to commence at or near Madras and to take a direction towards the Western Coast of India at an estimated cost of five hundred thousand pounds sterling or thereabouts and by an Indenture bearing date the nineteenth day of December One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five and made between the East India Company of the one part and the said Company of the other part It was amongst other things agreed that the said Company should construct and open a line of Railway to commence at some point in the said Experimental Line and to proceed to the Western Coast of India with a branch to Bangalore and the foot of the Hills towards Ootacamund at an estimated cost of four million pounds sterling or thereabouts and by the covenants and provisions of the said Indentures respectively it was amongst other things agreed that the land required for the said Experimental Line and Extension Line respectively should be provided by the East India Company and that the monies required to make up the said sum of four million pounds sterling should be paid by the said Company into the Treasury of the East India Company to be from time to time drawn out for the purposes of the works and that the land provided for the said Experimental Line and Extension Line respectively should be leased by the East India Company to the said Company for terms of ninety-nine years to be computed from the dates of the said Indentures respectively determinable by surrender or purchase as in the said Indentures respectively is mentioned and that the East India Company should pay to the said Company on the thirtieth day of June and the thirty-first day of December in every year during the said determinable terms of ninety-nine years interest at the rate of four pounds ten shillings per cent. per annum on the monies paid or to be paid into the Treasury of the East India Company for the purposes of the said Experimental Line as aforesaid and interest at the rate of five pounds per cent. per annum on monies to be so paid in respect of the sum of five hundred thousand pounds first raised for the said extension line and at the rate of four pounds fifteen shillings per cent. per annum on monies to be so paid in respect of the further sum of one million pounds raised for the said Extension Line and at such rate as might be agreed upon on any additional Capital to be raised for the said Extension Line And in the said Indenture of the nineteenth day of December One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five was contained a proviso that the net receipts of the whole line of Railway including the Experimental and Extension Lines realized in any half year should be applied in the first place in discharge of the interest payable by the East India Company as aforesaid in respect of such half year so as to exonerate them from the same and that the residue (if any) of such net receipts should be applied as follows, viz., one moiety thereof should be applied in payment of such sums as should at any previous times have been paid by the East India Company to the said Company by way of interest as aforesaid together with simple interest on the sums so paid at the rate of four pounds ten shillings per cent. per annum from the times of payment respectively and the other moiety of the said surplus net receipts should be applied for the use and benefit of the said Company AND WHEREAS a further sum of one million pounds sterling additional share Capital was created by the said Company in or about the month of May One thousand eight hundred and fifty-six for the purposes of the said Extension Line under an arrangement with the said East India Company for a guarantee of five pounds per cent. thereon which said Capital was denominated Third Extension Capital AND WHEREAS by an Indenture bearing date the thirteenth day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight and made between the East India Company of the one part and the said Company of the other part a Contract was entered into for the construction by the said Company of a line of Railway to commence at or near Madras and to proceed in a north-westerly direction to or near Bellary as a separate and distinct line of Railway And by the said Indenture now in recital the said East India Company agreed to guarantee interest at the rate of five pounds per cent. per annum upon the further Capital of one million pounds which had been created and issued by the said Company for the purposes of the said new line of Railway under the title of the Fourth Extension Capital And the said Indenture also contained similar covenants and provisions to those contained in the said Indenture of the nineteenth day of December One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five with respect to the said Extension Line And it was thereby provided that the accounts of the said line to Bellary both as to Capital and Revenue should be kept separate and distinct from the accounts of the said other lines of Railway AND WHEREAS under the provisions of the Act of the twenty-first and twenty-second years of Her Majesty Cap. 106 intituled "An Act for the better Government of India" the benefit of the hereinbefore recited Contracts became vested in Her Majesty for the purposes of the Government of India And it was by the said Act enacted that save as otherwise thereby provided one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State should have and might perform all such and the like powers and duties relating to the Government or Revenues of India as might or should have been exercised or performed by the East India Company and that the Secretary of State in Council with the concurrence of a majority of votes at a Meeting of the Council of India should have full power to enter into any Contracts whatsoever as might be thought fit for the purposes of that Act and all monies payable in respect of the said Indentures of Contract and all liabilities contracted on account of the Government of India were thereby charged and chargeable on the Revenues of India AND WHEREAS additional monies being required for the purposes of the said Extension Line of Railway the said Company in the month of June One thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine obtained the sanction of the Secretary of State in Council to raise for such purposes the further sum of one million pounds on Loan upon Debentures convertible into Stock and bearing interest at the rate of five pounds per
