No. 35. Read the following letter from the Accountant General, Madras, to all Civil and Sessions Judges, Judges of Courts of Small Causes and Principal Sudder Ameens; dated Fort Saint George, 9th January 1868, Circular No. 40.

Post Audit Department.

Judicial Officers absent from their Stations during adjournment of their Courts to draw pay from the Treasury of their own district.

I have the honor to inform you that Judicial Officers absent from their stations during the adjournment of their Courts are not at liberty to receive their salaries from the treasuries of the stations at which they may be temporarily residing for their own convenience, but should, in the beginning of the month following that for which pay is due, send their pay bills, duly stamped and receipted, to the Treasury Officer of their own district, with a request that the net amount due, after deduction of funds and other subscriptions, may be remitted to them either by means of Currency Notes or Money Orders as they may choose. For the Money Orders they will have to pay the premium demanded from the general public.

No. 36. ORDER THEREON, 12th February 1868, No. 73.

Ordered that the foregoing Circular issued by the Accountant General be published in the Fort Saint George Gazette for the information of all Judicial Officers.
