Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department,
9th April 1869.

No. 24. Read the following letter from the Accountant General, Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Fort Saint George, 31st March 1869, No. 255.

Correspondence Department.

In forwarding an original letter to the address of the Controller, Money Order Office, from the Collector of Tanjore, referred to me by the former for orders, and which I beg may be returned, I have the honor to request that the Government will favor me with instructions for my guidance, as I do not feel myself at liberty to accept the terms offered without sanction.

From the Collector of Tanjore, to the Controller of the Money Order Department, Madras; dated Tanjore, 20th March 1869, No. 154.

In reply to your letter of the 27th February 1869, No. 426, I have the honor to inform you that the Agent at Combaconum did not furnish security whilst he was acting as such at Negapatam. He says that he is unable to furnish the required securities in the sums of Rupees 500. The officer in charge of the Treasury suggests that the reserve fund in the hands of the Agent should be reduced to Rupees 200, as then he will be able to find security for that sum in cash or landed property, and two personal sureties for a like sum.

No. 25. ORDER THEREON, 9th April 1869, No. 179.

Under the circumstances represented by the Collector of Tanjore in his letter dated the 26th ultimo, No. 154, His Excellency the Governor in Council authorizes the Accountant General to reduce the reserve fund in the hands of the Money Order Agent at Combaconum to Rupees 200, and accept from him security for that amount.
