FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

No. 181.

FROM

THE HONORABLE R. S. ELLIS, C. B.,

Chief Secretary to the Government of Fort Saint George,

To

THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA,

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

SIR,

Referring to paragraph 3 of your letter, dated the 26th May 1863, No. 2157, and to the ruling contained in your letter, dated the 8th April 1868, No. 2116, I am directed to submit, for the favorable consideration and sanction of the Governor General in Council, the accompanying application from Pondicherry Samy Moodelly, late Jawabnaviss in the office of the Collector of the Madras district, praying that he may be allowed to refund the gratuities which he has received, and that he may be granted a pension instead, for his service of nearly thirty years.

2. P. Samy Moodelly entered the public service on the 2nd January 1827, and served as an English writer and Jawabnaviss for a period of 29 years 7 months and 8 days in the offices of Carnatic Register, Tanjore Commissioner, and the Collector of Madras. He was also employed for eight months as a Stamp Vendor, which however does not count for pension.

3. When the Tanjore Commissioner's office was abolished in 1838, Samy Moodelly was thrown out of employ and received a gratuity of Rupees 210. He re-entered the service in 1842, and was employed for nearly eighteen years under the Collector of Madras. On the amalgamation of the Madras and Chingleput districts in 1860, he was thrown out of employ.

4. In September 1865, Samy Moodelly refunded the gratuity of Rupees 210 which he received in 1838, and an application was submitted by the Collector of Madras on the 7th February 1866, for a pension on his behalf. Under the rules in force at the time this Government were precluded from allowing the refund of gratuity. They, therefore, directed its return to Samy Moodelly, and sanctioned the grant to him of a further gratuity of Rupees 125.

5. Under the ruling contained in your letter of the 8th April 1868, No. 2116, I am directed to request that the sanction of the Government of India may be accorded to Samy Moodelly being permitted to refund the gratuities which he has received, and to a pension of Rupees 8-4-0 per mensem, equal to one-third of his average salary for the five years preceding his loss of employment, being granted to him instead. The pension to have effect from the 22nd August 1865, the date of Samy Moodelly's application.

FORT SAINT GEORGE,
9th April 1869.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient Servant,

Chief Secretary.

From P. SAMY MOODELLY, through the Examiner of Claims, to the Accountant General, Fort Saint George ; dated Madras, 3rd February 1869.

Understanding that a decision has been passed by the Government of India, allowing, in the case of persons who were thrown out of employ prior to 1860 and thereupon received a gratuity, but who subsequently were re-employed and had completed a service entitling them, taken with the former, to a pension, the option of refunding the amount of their gratuity in order to their obtaining such pension, or, in other words, allowing their whole service to count for pension as if there had been no break ; and as I am one of those who lost my appointment through abolition of office, I beg respectfully that the decision above referred to may be made applicable to my case, and that a pension may be granted to me on my refunding the amount of gratuity which I received in 1838. My whole service under Government extends to upwards of thirty years which was passed in qualifying grades. I had the misfortune twice, before the last occasion, to be thrown out of employ in consequence of the abolition of offices in which I was serving. I received a gratuity of Rupees 210, in 1838, when I first lost my employment, which I refunded on making application for a pension, which, however, the Government ordered to be returned to me with an additional amount of gratuity. When I lost my last appointment in the Madras Collectorate, the then Collector, Mr. Cunliffe, appointed me as a Stamp Vendor, as he thought that I was still able to work, and that I could afterwards obtain a pension for my former effective service. The Government, however, were pleased to rule otherwise, greatly to the disappointment of my long-cherished hope of some permanent income from Government in this time of my decline. But as I understand that the Government have now provided for persons situated in like circumstances as myself who have lost their employment through no fault of their own getting pensions, I earnestly beg that you will submit my case to the Government with your favorable recommendation for the grant to me of a pension, as I am prepared to refund gratuities which I have received from the public treasury.
