Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department,
16th April 1869.

No. 45. Read the following Despatch from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for India, to His Excellency the Right Honorable the Governor in Council, Fort Saint George ; dated India Office, London, 11th March 1869, No. 24, (Financial.)

I have considered in Council your Financial letter, dated the 21st December last, No. 24, forwarding papers relative to the receipt and payment, by the Bank of Madras, of a bill, of which no advice had been received by that Bank, and requesting that advices of all bills drawn by the Home Government on the General Treasury of your Presidency may be sent direct to the Secretary and Treasurer of the Bank of Madras.

2. The advice of the bill in question was duly forwarded to you in the usual manner, and its non-receipt by the Bank of Madras must have resulted from neglect on the part of the officers of your Government.

3. I see no sufficient reason for making any alteration in the present system, under which advices of all bills drawn by me are sent direct to the several Governments more especially as no inconvenience has, so far as I am aware, been experienced, either at Calcutta or Bombay, on which Presidencies bills are drawn to a far greater extent than on your Government.

No. 46. ORDER THEREON, 16th April 1869, No. 192.

Resolved that copies of the foregoing Despatch be furnished to the Accountant General, and to the Secretary and Treasurer of the Bank of Madras, with reference to G. O., dated the 15th December 1868, No. 574.

2. It is observed that the advice of the bill, No. 990, referred to in the Despatch, was received on the 2nd December 1868, in the Government Office, and sent on the same day to the Secretary and Treasurer of the Bank of Madras.
