FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

No. 26.

FROM

THE HONORABLE R. S. ELLIS, C. B., Chief Secretary to the Government of Fort Saint George,

To

THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA, FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

SIR,

In reply to Mr. Under Secretary Batten's letter, No. 2682, dated the ~~15th~~ 13 of October last, I am directed to inform you that, during the last five years, only one instance has occurred in which a Civil Servant, while absent on leave, has been appointed by this Government to an Office of superior emolument to that held by him at the time of his leaving India, and on this occasion there were special grounds for the arrangement.

2. The Right Honorable the Governor in Council is of opinion that the New Furlough Rules offer sufficient encouragements to Civil Servants proceeding on leave, and that it is not desirable to add to those encouragements by generally adopting the practice of promoting Civil Servants while absent. He considers that an Officer while absent on furlough should not be promoted, except under peculiar circumstances, and as a special case.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient Servant,

FORT SAINT GEORGE,

With reference to the memo: from the Under Secretary to Government No. 377 dated 7th Ultimo, Financial Department, I have the honor to state that the only instance during the past five years ended with 31st October 1868 in which a Civil Servant while absent on leave was promoted or appointed by the Madras Government to an office of superior emolument to that held by him before proceeding on leave is that of Mr. C. F. Chamier who went to England on sick leave holding the appointment of Registrar of the High Court in Appellate Side upon Rupees 2187-8-0 a month and was while absent, appointed Civil and Sessions Judge of Salem upon Rs 2333-5-4 per mensem.

2. I may also add that during my absence from India on sick leave in 1863, I was promoted by the Government of India from the Accountant Generalship of Bengal on

It appears to be important as a general rule that combatant Civil Servants should be promoted while absent in England. The present furlough rules in any minor Office would

I would not admit of these Encouragements by declaring that absentees should be eligible for promotion.
