No. 47. Read the following letter from Mrs. NANCY BULL, widow of the late Pensioned Trumpet Major T. Bull, to the Adjutant General of the Army, Fort Saint George; dated Nagpore, 30th November 1868.

With reference to your Office Memorandum, No. 45, submitted to Government, regarding the estate of my late husband Pensioned Trumpet Major T. Bull, and the Chief Secretary's letter (Order) No. 83, dated 24th February, directing me to take such measures as I think proper, consequent of my declining to accept half of my husband's estate, I beg to enclose a true copy of the Certificate of Heirship granted to me by the Deputy Commissioner, Nagpore, and beg you will obtain the necessary orders, (or transfer this application with the certificate to the department concerned,) with the view of the amount now in deposit, with interest, &c., in the Government Savings' Bank, being remitted to me as early as possible, as I am in great want and distress.

2. I beg any orders to my address may be directed to the care of E. Chambers, Esq., Superintendent General Registry Offices, Central Provinces and Berar, Nagpore.
