Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department, 29th July 1869.

No. 52. Read the following Proceedings of the Government of India, Financial Department, dated Simla, 30th June 1869, No. 1718.

Leave and Allowances.

Read the undermentioned correspondence :—

Letter from the Accountant General, Punjab, No. 11, dated the 16th April 1869, inquiring first, whether a public officer transferred from one presidency or province to another, or proceeding on furlough or special leave to Europe, should draw his salary or absentee allowance "up to the date of his departure," or on "the completion of a month; and secondly, "whether in the case of officers going on furlough or special leave to Europe, the three years' average salary should be calculated up to the date of making over charge, or up to the close of the month preceeding" that date.

Endorsement to the Comptroller General of Accounts, No. 395, dated the 7th May 1869, forwarding the above for report.

Report from the Comptroller General of Accounts, No. 355, dated the 3rd ultimo.

RESOLUTION.—In reply to the Accountant General's first question, the Governor General in Council observes that salaries and absentee allowances in India must always be paid monthly, and that the only exception to this rule is the case of an officer proceeding on other than privilege leave out of India. In this case the officer proceeding on leave should be paid by the officer in charge of the treasury from which he draws pay when on duty up to the end of the month preceding that in which he makes over charge of his office. If he be employed at the station of the Accountant General of his Presidency, or pass through that station on his way to the port of embarkation, or embark at that station, he will be paid by that Accountant General up to the date of his leaving such station. If he embarks at a port in any other than the Presidency in which he is employed, he will be paid up to the date of his embarkation by the Accountant General or Treasury Officer at the port of embarkation.

2. With reference to the Accountant General's second question, His Excellency in Council is pleased to rule that furlough allowance shall be calculated on the average salary of the absentee for the three years immediately preceding the date on which he makes over charge of his office.

3. Pending the revision of the Uncovenanted Service Leave Rules, nothing in this Resolution shall entitle an Uncovenanted Servant to draw pay while on privilege leave.

ORDER.—Ordered that the foregoing Resolution be published in the Gazette of India, and communicated to the Foreign, Home, Military, Public Works, and Legislative Departments; the Governments of Bengal, Madras, Bombay, the North-Western Provinces, and the Punjab; the Comptroller General of Accounts; the Director General of the Post Office of India; the Mint Master, Calcutta; the Head Commissioner of the Paper Currency, Calcutta; the Accountants General in Bengal, Madras, Bombay, the North-Western Provinces, the Punjab, and British Burmah; and the Deputy Accountants General in the Central Provinces, Hyderabad, and Mysore.
