Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department, 18*th August* 1869.

No. 27. Read the following letter from the Accountant General, Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George ; dated Fort Saint George, 27th July 1869, No. 107.

Book Department.

With reference to the orders of Government noted in the margin, I have the honour to forward, herewith, a copy of the Schedule and an Order, No. 861, dated 28th May 1869, as well as copy of a letter from the Acting Chief Clerk in the Court for the relief of Insolvent debtors at Madras, dated 22nd instant, showing the liabilities of C. T. Rajaganapati Mudali, a Clerk in this office on a salary of Rupees 35 per mensem, who was admitted to the benefit of the Act for Insolvent debtors during his absence on leave from this office and whilst employed as Dubash to Messrs. Ottway and Co. of Madras, a Commercial House which has since failed. From these papers it will be seen that these liabilities were not the result of any acts of extravagance on the part of Rajaganapati, but are rather attributable to misfortunes in business.

No. 1109, dated 10th August 1857, Public Department.
„ 1649, dated 2nd November 1859, do.

No. 28. ORDER THEREON, 18th August 1869, No. 364.

The Government cannot regard the case of C. T. Rajaganapati Mudali as deserving of consideration. He left the Government service and indulged in reckless speculation, as is manifested by his Schedule which exhibits liabilities amounting to Rupees 22,605, while his assets are Rupees 17,706. Under these circumstances there seems no ground for viewing this case with indulgence, and His Excellency in Council must decline to sanction the re-employment of Rajaganapati Mudali in the Accountant General's Office.

this Office and whilst employed as Dubash to Messrs. Ottway & Co. of Madras, a commercial house which has since failed. From these papers it will be seen that these liabilities were not the result of any acts of extravagance on the part of Rajahgunapathy but are rather attributable to misfortunes in business

I agree with Mr Phillips. I should accept the deceased gn.t Servic Voluntarily as a Dubash in the Govt. Service, should not be made a convenience.

to Messrs Ottway & Co of Madras a Commercial House which has since failed.

3. The Accountant General states that the liabilities were not the result of any acts of Extravagance on the part of the clerk but are rather attributable to misfortunes in business, and under these circumstances he requests that the Govern^t will be pleased to sanction the re-Employment of the clerk in his office when an opportunity offers.

What business has a Govt servant to be in business? Why?

4. The schedule
shews that the clerk's liabilities amounted to Rupees 22,605- that his assets amoun ing to Rupees 15,311 (Excludi the property in actual possessi valued at Rs 2,395) were with one exception of Rs 65,
"doubtful" and "bad".

5. The transactions Embodied in the Schedule commenced on the 5th November 1867. But the Accountant General has not

not stated from what date the clerk was allowed leave, or how long prior to the leave he was employed in his office

6. Judging from the extensive speculations into which the clerk embarked, it is evident that he had no intention of reverting to the public service; but having failed he now seeks re-admission. His re-admission would form a bad precedent.

6. The Government have endeavoured to check the system of mutual accommodation and reckless borrowing by subordinates and it seems desirable that a similar check should be placed on reckless speculations of the nature upon which C. T. Rajah Ganapathy Moodely, a clerk on Rs 35 per mensem, embarked.

With much deference for what I believe are generally the views of this Govt in cases of this class, I entirely cannot regard the present application from the A. G on behalf of C. T. Rajah Ganapathy Moodelly, as deserving of consideration. The Moodelly is evidently a loose, reckless speculator, who, with a liability of Rs 2260, had a surplus, Rs 22605, had a net worth Rs 65 found a petworth Rs 65 accepted in para 6 of Mem. ibid; I think, the honour duty of the Govt to express on every possible occasion that system of mutual accommodation which has rendered a depression of our public servants Bankrupts or kept them on the verge of insolvency

Order thereon. No 304 - 18th Augt 69.

The Government can not regard the case of
C. J. Rajagunapati Mudali as deserving of consideration. He left the Govt service and indulged in reckless speculation as is manifested by his schedule which exhibits liabilities amounting to Rs 22,605, while his assets are Rs 17,706. Under these circumstances the Govt sees no ground for viewing this case with indulgence and decline. His Excellency in Council must declines to sanction the re-employment of Rajagunapathy
