Report of the Examiner of Claims.

Order, 15th September 1869, No. 314.

Pandaranga Rau, late Assistant Superintendent in the Salt Department in South Canara, on whose behalf the foregoing application is submitted, was discharged from the service on the 31st July 1868 by the Deputy Collector.

He was not sent for medical examination till the 8th January 1869, a delay which the Government cannot consider satisfactorily explained; and, when he did present himself, was declared by the Civil Surgeon to be fit for the performance of further duty. The Acting Collector, Mr. Boswell, having personally examined the man, concurred with the Salt Deputy Collector in the opinion that he was quite worn-out and incapable of doing useful service, and accordingly submitted an application for gratuity unsupported by a medical certificate.

2. The applicant has served for thirty-nine years, four months, and sixteen days; but, having received a gratuity in 1854, when thrown out of employ on reduction of establishment, can be entitled to a gratuity of four months' pay only, or Rupees 80, under the old rules, for his subsequent service of fourteen years, two months, and twenty-six days. His character throughout his service appears to have been satisfactory. His age must now be at least 60 years.

3. Under the circumstances, the Government resolve to submit the case for the orders of the Government of India with a recommendation that the grant of the gratuity of Rupees 80 may be sanctioned.
