Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department,
8th November 1869.

No. 33. Read the following letter from the Senior Chaplain of the Church of Scotland, to the Accountant-General, Fort Saint George, dated Bangalore, 26th October 1869.

I have the honour to forward, herewith, Budget Estimate of expenditure connected with the Church of Scotland in this Presidency, for the official year 1870-71.

2. I have to mention that I have asked the Government to sanction three thousand (3000) rupees for a wall and rail to enclose Saint Andrew's Church, Bangalore, or to recommend the entry of that sum in the Budget. I expected to have had a reply on the subject ere now, but none has been received. I hope, however, I may get a favourable answer before the despatch of the Budget to the Supreme Government.

No. 34. ORDER THEREON, 8th November 1869, No. 540.

With the foregoing letter the Senior Chaplain of the Church of Scotland submits the Budget Estimate for the year 1870-71, amounting to Rupees 42,846.

2. Comparing the estimate with the items passed in the Budget for the current year, there is an increase of Rupees 3600 on account of "Junior Chaplains," as it is expected that one of them will have ten years' service on the 8th March 1870, and will consequently be entitled to the higher rate of pay of Rupees 800 per mensem. There is, also, an increase of Rupees 700 in the item of "Travelling allowances," the necessity for which has not been explained.

3. The estimate* for 1870-71 exceeds the estimate† for 1869-70 by Rupees 4273, and the actuals for 1867-68‡ and 1868-69§ by Rupees 9713 and Rupees 9239, respectively.

* Rupees 42,846. ‡ Rupees 33,133.
† ,, 38,573. § ,, 33,607.

4. The Governor in Council passes the increase of Rupees 3600 on account of the Junior Chaplain; but directs that the increase of Rupees 700 in the item of "Travelling allowances" be disallowed. This will reduce the aggregate of the estimate for 1870-71 from Rupees 42,846 to Rupees 42,146.
