Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department, 4th April 1870.

No. 1. Read the following letter from the Commissary-General, Madras, to the Secretary to Government, Military Department, Fort Saint George, dated Madras, 16th March 1870, No. 9278.

Adverting to the Proceedings and Order of Government, Financial Department, dated 24th March 1869, No. 154, relative to Promissory Notes deposited by Commissariat Contractors as security being received in the Branch Banks for safe custody, I have the honour to forward a Memorandum, dated 9th February 1870, No. 1468, from the Executive Commissariat Officer, Bangalore, and its enclosure, together with a Memorandum, dated 10th February 1870, No. 53-890, from the Secretary and Treasurer of the Bank of Madras, from which it would appear that Notes, lodged by the Contractors of this Department at Bangalore, cannot be received in the Branch Bank at that station, in consequence of its not dealing with Government cash.

2. As the transmission of Notes from one station to another is attended with risk, I request instructions as to where the securities should be deposited in cases where the Branch Bank has not Government cash.

Referred to the Financial Department, with reference to Proceedings of Government in that Department, No. 154, dated 24th March 1870.

Fort Saint George,
21*st March* 1870.

(Signed) A. T. WILDE, Colonel,
Secy. to Govt., Mily. Dept.

No. 2. Order thereon, 4th April 1870, No. 153.

It is observed that the Accountant-General has in his letter, No. 234, embodied in the Proceedings of Government, dated the 24th March 1869, No. 154, stated that, in those districts in which the Branch Banks do not deal with the Government cash, it will still be necessary that the Promissory Notes deposited for more than six months should be forwarded to the Bank of Madras at the Presidency as heretofore. This course will be followed by the Commissary-General in respect of the Notes referred to in his letter above recorded.
