Sir,

In reply to Mr. Under Secretary Batten's letter No 981 dated 9th February 1870, remarking that the Madras Government have overlooked the provisions of Order of the Govt of India, No 633 dated 31st January 1868, in dissolowing a period of 1 year and 4 months in the service of Rangappa Naidu; adding however that even with this alteration 2 months more service are still required to entitle him to pension, and asking whether the Madras Govt would wish the latter small deficiency to be overlooked overlooked or not, I am directed to state that the Madras Government regret the oversight mentioned above, and that they would wish that the 2 months deficiency in the title to pension fi= =nally allowed to should be overlooked, and an allow= =ance of one third pay be granted to the petitioner as a special case.
