The Budget Estimates of Revenue under IX. "Stamps" and XIII. "Law and Justice" of the several Governments and Administrations for 1870-71.

RESOLUTION.—The Governor-General in Council observes that the estimates for 1870-71 under these two heads of revenue, as submitted by the several Local Governments and Administrations, amount to Rupees 3,23,18,676, as follows:—

	Stamps.	Law and Justice.	Total.
	RS.	RS.	RS.
Government of India	63,720	2,90,500	3,54,220
Oudh	4,07,500	5,38,104	9,45,604
Central Provinces	1,64,000	10,34,000	11,98,000
British Burmah...	1,93,800	6,87,100	8,80,900
Bengal	26,00,787	77,11,799	1,03,12,586
North-Western Provinces	10,28,200	36,32,340	46,60,540
Punjab	5,44,900	22,84,746	28,29,646
Madras	14,12,500	34,35,000	48,47,500
Bombay	11,76,150	51,13,530	62,89,680
Total...	75,91,557	2,47,27,119	3,23,18,676

2. As, however, the regular estimate for 1869-70 shows the receipts under these two heads at only Rupees 3,14,67,000, viz., Stamps Rupees 2,36,46,000, and Law and Justice Rupees 78,21,000, and as the separation of Judicial from other Stamps, and the transfer of the former from Stamps to Law and Justice in 1870-71, render the apportionment of the estimates under these heads difficult and uncertain, the Governor-General in Council has been pleased to accept the local estimates. In testing their correctness, His Excellency in Council observes that to the figures of the regular estimate for 1869-70 must be added Rupees 3,50,000, balance of Ameens' Fund in Bombay, to be transferred to credit of Law and Justice in 1870-71, and Rupees 6,00,000 on account of Process Service Fees in Bengal, which together with a like amount of charge will henceforward be shown in consequence of the fees being collected by stamps. With these additions the estimate for both heads would stand at Rupees 3,24,17,000, being Rupees 98,324 more than the estimates of the Local Governments.

3. In these circumstances, His Excellency in Council has been pleased to accept the local estimates, increasing, however, those of the Government of India by Rupees 8443 and Rupees 20,881 under the two heads, respectively. The figures adopted stand thus:—

	RS.
IX. Stamps	76,00,000
XIII. Law and Justice	2,47,48,000

Ordered that a copy of the above Resolution be sent to the several Local Governments and Accountants-General concerned, and the Comptroller-General of Accounts, for information.
