Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department, 4th January 1870.

No. 3. Read the following letter from the Officiating Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, to the Officiating Accountant-General, Madras, dated Fort William, 16th November 1869, No. 2315.

Leave and Allowances.]

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 1161, of the 7th ultimo, and in reply to state that Section XXX. of the Rules of the 16th June 1868, for the grant of leave of absence to Civil Servants must be held to have been cancelled under the Notification of the Government of India, No. 2527, dated the 7th August last.

2. Rule XXX. was intended to give such officers as should voluntarily elect the lower minimum of £300 furlough allowance, the advantage of the higher maximum of £1200 in future furlough. This option as to the minimum must be held to have been withdrawn when the maximum was reduced in all cases to £1000.

Ordered that the foregoing letter be published in the Gazette of India, and that copies thereof be forwarded to the other Departments of the Government of India; the Comptroller-General of Accounts; the Director-General of the Post Office of India; the other Accountants-General; and the Deputy Accountants-General in independent charge.

No. 5266.

Copy forwarded to the Government of Madras for information.
