Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department, 5th August 1870.

Read again Despatch from the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for India, dated 24th March 1870, and recorded in Proceedings of Government, 21st May 1870, No. 204.

No. 9. ORDER THEREON, 5th August 1870, No. 331.

The Government observe that the share of the pension to which Kodur Sitaramayya is entitled under the foregoing Despatch is Rupees 54-11-0 per mensem. He is clearly entitled to the arrears at this rate from the date of his brother's death, viz., the 22nd November 1856. These amount to Rupees 8983-5-4 up to the 31st July 1870, and should now be disbursed to K. Sitaramayya. The Accountant-General will point out the budget head to which this charge should be debited, and will furnish to Kodur Sitaramayya the usual documents to enable him to draw his pension in future.

Memo for orders.

The Secretary of State in his despatch of the 24th March 1870 N^o 26, has recognised the claim of Kodur Sitaramayya,
detailed in the letter to the Gov^t of India, 25th Dec 1869 N^o 496, herewith put
up. The Sec^y of State directs that K. Sitaramayya is to be allowed, ^{for his life} such a share of the pension as he would have ~~been~~ enjoyed if it had been after the death of his father divided equally between himself

and his brother.

2. The pension was 375 pagodas, or Rs 1312. 8. 0 per annum, or per mensem Rs 109 - 8. 0. Half of this is Rs 54. 11. 0, which will be the share of K. Sitarāmayya.

3. The question is from what date is this to be paid? If from the date of his brother's death (22nd Nov^r 1856) the arrears to the 30th June 1870, will amount to Rs 8928. 10. 4. It is submitted that if the claim was good in 1870 it was good in 1856, and that

From 23 rd to 30 th Nov 1856.	14-9-4
1 st Dec 1856 to 30 th June 70.	8914. 1. 0
	8928. 10. 4

Note
This what is the usual practice in a claim of this nature. The amount of the arrears though inconvenient should not affect the question.

K. Sitarāmayya is entitled to the arrears.
There may, however, be some difficulty in making so large a charge from the current year's budget.
4. Order as requested.
