Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department, 19th August 1870.

No. 31. Read the following Proceedings of the Government of India in the Financial Department, dated Simla, 29th July 1870, No. 2221:—

Pensions and Gratuities.]

Read the following:—

From the Under Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Bombay, dated 20th November 1869, No. 2547.

In acknowledging the receipt of your endorsement, No. 1358, dated 16th October 1869, I am directed to state that the Governor-General in Council is unable to adopt the recommendation of the Government of Bombay, that any breaks in the service of Government servants in inferior grades, who may be thrown out of employ after a service of thirty years, should not interfere with their claims to compassionate allowance. It was decided in an order of this Department, dated 11th October 1861, that gratuities to Uncoveuanted Servants should, as in the case of pensions, be granted only for continuous service, and as the compassionate allowance lately authorized for inferior servants is in lieu of the gratuity previously allowed to them, breaks in service (caused otherwise than by abolition of office) should, in respect of service for compassionate allowance, have the same effect as in respect of service for gratuity.

2. In the above view no compassionate allowance is admissible in the case referred to by the Government of Bombay, viz, that of Abdool Kadur Wullud Fukee Ismael, a Chobdar on the establishment of the High Court, Bombay.

Ordered that a copy of the above letter be furnished to the Accountant-General, Bombay.

Ordered that a copy of the above be furnished to the several Secretariats of the Government of India; the several Local Governments and Administrations (Government of Bombay excepted); the Director-General of the Post Office of India; the Mint Master, Calcutta; the Head Commissioner of Paper Currency; the Comptroller-General of Accounts; the several Accountants-General (Accountant-General, Bombay, excepted); and the several Deputy Accountants-General in independent charge.
