No. 42. Read the following letter from the Comptroller-General of Accounts, to all Accountants-General, dated Calcutta, 23rd June 1870, Circular No. 107:—

In consequence of the abolition of the several Police Superannuation Funds, it becomes necessary to lay down a rule for the exhibition of the net payments to the members of the Police who formerly subscribed to the Fund.

2. In all cases where the salaries have not been revised, and where accordingly the old deductions are still made, the bill should be made out as before, but the net amount only should be charged in account; all credit of the deductions will accordingly cease.

3. Of other miscellaneous sums formerly credited to the Fund, any that arise as deductions from the bill will, in like manner, disappear from the account; the bill being always shown net, but any items received in cash will, when paid into the Treasury, be credited to XIV. POLICE, under the minor head of "FEES, FINES, AND FORFEITURES," or "MISCELLANEOUS," as the case may be.

THE COMPTROLLER GENERAL,

To

ALL ACCOUNTANTS GENERAL.

SIR,

In consequence of the abolition of the several Police Superannuation Funds, it becomes necessary to lay down a rule for the exhibition of the net payments to the members of the Police who formerly subscribed to the Fund.

2. In all cases where the salaries have not been revised, and where accordingly the old deductions are still made, the bill should be made out as before, but the net amount only should be charged in account; all credit of the deductions will accordingly cease.

3. Of other miscellaneous sums formerly credited to the Fund, any that arise as deductions from the bill, will in like manner disappear from the account; the bill being always shown net, but any items received in cash will, when paid into the Treasury, be credited to XIV. POLICE, under the minor head of "FEES, FINES, AND FORFEITURES," or "MISCELLANEOUS," as the case may be.

I have the honor to be,
SIR,
Your most obedient Servant,
E. F. HARRISON,
Comptroller General.
