Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department,
22nd January 1870.

No. 62. Read the following letter from the Assistant Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Fort William, 13th December 1869, Circular No. 3047.

Accounts.]

In reviewing the accounts of the Civil Department for the first half-year of 1869-70, the Governor-General in Council notices the growing expenditure under the following heads, as compared with the same date last year:—

"Administration and Public Departments."
"Law and Justice."
"Stationery."

His Excellency in Council earnestly warns the local Governments and Accountants-General that the grants must not be exceeded, and that the latter will be responsible if they allow more to be disbursed than the grants, without special orders of Government.

2. His Excellency in Council adds that precautions must be more and more strict, as the financial prospect becomes less and less satisfactory.

No. 63. ORDER THEREON, 22nd January 1870, No. 41.

Before replying to the foregoing letter, the Governor in Council resolves to request the Accountant-General to furnish a statement showing the Budget grants, and the expenditure up to the end of December last, under each of the heads specified in paragraph 1 of the letter, together with such explanation as he may have to offer on the cause of excess.
