No. 21. Read the following letter from the Accountant-General, Madras, to the Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Fort Saint George, dated Fort Saint George, 16th September 1870, No. 172:—

Post Audit Department.

With reference to the appointment of Sevasunkara Moodelly to act as Deputy Collector, Chingleput, during the absence of Chentsul Row on privilege leave for three months, I have the honour to bring to the notice of Government that an extra expense of Rupees 85 per mensem has been entailed on the State, from 7th July last, on account of deputation allowance due to Sevasunkara Moodelly. This amount will be increased if arrangements with allowances are made to fill his place in the Collector's office.

2. I avail myself of this opportunity of inquiring whether, under G. O., No. 189, dated 13th April 1869, the extra charge caused by appointments made in consequence of privilege leave granted to gazetted officers can be admitted by this department without further reference, or whether their special sanction should be obtained for such expense in each case.
