No. 13. Read the following letter from Mr. L. MILLER, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated London, 22nd September 1870:—

I beg to bring to your notice, for the information of Government, that, some time in the latter end of February or early in March last, just before I left Madras, I forwarded to my son, Lieutenant W. Taylor Miller, Royal Marine Light Infantry, Gosport, by the overland mail, via Bombay and Marseilles, a letter covering the upper halves of two Government Securities, as per particulars below specified, enfaced for payment of interest in London, which said halves have never reached him; and, on a representation of the circumstance to the Post Office authorities in London, inquiry regarding the missing cover was made by them, but without a successful result, as the Secretary has informed me "that full inquiry has been made in this "country, but that no intelligence of it" (the missing cover) "has been obtained." Under these circumstances, I beg that duplicates of the Securities in question may be applied for, and, on receipt, handed over to Mr. John Miller, Administrator-General, Madras, for me.
